30 / 07 / 2012 (16:01 UTC+1) - UPDATE: Common Sense

The PS-Ning, specifically Nancy, keeps doing lots of mistakes regardless of obvious disconfirmation being presented.

Members who say otherwise are being hunted down by Nancy’s regular means of manipulation, called “mindless”, needing to “kick start that brain”.

Maybe it is Nancy or the remaining PS-Moderators who need to kick start their brains and stop blindly trusting someone who’s being proven wrong over and over again?

Don’t expect too much though.. as they are in hard denial, unable to face solid evidence and need to wake up on their own.

People on GLP are doing an excellent job as usual in exposing Nancy’s lies:

This time - Nancy (per the Zetas) called the Goodyear-blimp at the London Olympics 2012 Opening Ceremony a UFO because she apparently was too lazy to look things up in detail.

Quoted from:

<http://www.godlikeproductions.com/forum1/message1939044/pg1>

Per Nancy (the Zetas):

SOZT

As has happened in the past, a UFO display showed up at an event where many private video cameras were recording the event.

The 2012 Olympics opening was another such event, recorded LIVE and delivered to audiences around the world. By the time the authorities realized what was happening, it was too late. YouTube videos of the event have already gone viral, and official news channels had no choice but to admit it, and even discuss it – Skynews leading the way. EOZT

So the Zetas officially told Nancy Lieder, that an UFO showed up at the London Olympics 2012 Opening Ceremony.

A single frame of one of the videos posted on her site (link to poleshift.ning.com)

In contrast a photo taken with a proper camera from about the same location.

Posted on the Goodyear site.

(The part in the red box was blurred and contrast enhanced to simulate the shitty video cam).

Another photo showing clearly the Goodyear blimp:

Hello all!

I don't want to be a debunker in your eyes. I respect Nancy and Zetas.

*But if this a UFO then where is GoodYear blimp?

And why there are panoramic videos from the angle of this UFO?

Regards,

Steve.

He was duly chastised for being "mindless":

@Fra

What! Have you even LOOKED at that blimp video? Panoramic views? SkyNews takes vids from their chopper! Heavens, people you have to start thinking! Kick start that brain of yours and stop posting mindless stuff like this, really!

Blimp

Of course, she didn't answer his pertinent question of "But if this a UFO then where is GoodYear blimp?"

Once again Nancy is obviously exhausted, unable to study the Q&A-questions deep enough to formulate a NancyTalk that would turn out right and aggressively hunts down anyone who says otherwise.
