3. "An Analysis of Religious Divisions in the Muslim Community of Toronto"
Written by S. H. AZMI
December 27, 1967
(See Appendix G)

[redacted] provided this document on August 17, 1988, and stated that this is an example of the ongoing intrigue and evaluation by the IIIT leadership of the various subsidiary Muslim organizations they control. [redacted] advised that they constantly direct and fund individuals who compile reports utilized by the IIIT leadership to determine the amount of financial support or their political support for the leadership of various Muslim organizations or mosques located in the United States and Canada. [redacted] also advised that this document provides some insight to the internal politics in the various Muslim groups tied to the IIIT and its various United States Muslim organizations such as the MSA, NAIT, and ISNA.

[redacted] advised that in addition to the internal political structure and organization of NAIT as controlled by the IIIT leadership that as members of the IKHWAN they are involved in organizing external political support which involves influencing both public opinion in the United States as well as the United States Government.

[redacted] has, based on comments and statements by the current leadership of the IIIT, determined they are implementing Phase I of the overall six phase IKHWAN plan to institute the Islamic Revolution in the United States. (See Appendix A)

[redacted] has advised that the IKHWAN is a secret Muslim organization that has unlimited funds and is extremely well organized in the United States to the point where it has set up political action front groups with no traceable ties to the IIIT or its various Muslim groups. They also have claimed success in infiltrating the United States Government with sympathetic or compromised individuals. [redacted] advised that in Phase I of the Islamic Revolution as followed by the IKHWAN, the IIIT leadership has indicated that in this phase their organization needs to peacefully get inside the United States Government and also American universities. [redacted] noted that the ultimate goal of the Islamic Revolution is the overthrow of all non-Islamic Governments and that violence is a tool and a part of the Islamic Revolution. [redacted] noted that [redacted] has stated that Muslims in the United States have to be prepared for Martyrdom meaning
